

Be a part of protecting our future!
“A History of Protecting the Future:
The Story of the Honey Hollow Watershed” Symposium

Learn how a few people changed environmental history for Bucks County and sent a message across the USA.

Bucks County Audubon Society Visitor Center
2877 Creamery Road, New Hope, PA 18938

Saturday, May 4, 2013

9:30 AM to 3:30 PM

Free and Open to Public by Reservation Only

Join us as we explore how the rich legacy of co-operative stewardship that began at Honey Hollow can be used today to inspire a new generation.

- ♦ Keynote speaker: Jean Cutler, Director of the Bureau of Historic Preservation for the Pennsylvania Historic and Museum Commission.
- ♦ Guided walking tour with environmentalist Malcolm Crooks
- ♦ Soil & Watershed Conservation workshop: Learn how to protect water resources at home and improve your farm or garden's soil quality
- ♦ Free lunch provided
- ♦ Optional reception afterward

RESERVE YOUR SEAT TODAY—THE SYMPOSIUM WILL FILL UP QUICKLY!!

For additional details and to register visit: www.HeritageConservancy.org or call Joyce at 215-345-7020 ext. 114.

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has.”

Margaret Mead